(The pro hac vice admission fee is $150.00 and shall be paid to the Clerk. No admission under Rule 83.14 is effective until such time as the fee has been paid.)

NOTE: Attorneys seeking to appear pro hac vice may wish to consider filing a petition for admission to the general bar of this Court. The fee for admission to the General Bar is $181.00. The fee for pro hac vice admission is $150.00. Admission to the general bar permits an attorney to practice before this Court. Pro hac vice admission entitles an attorney to appear in a particular case only. Application for such admission must be made in each case; and the admission fee must be paid in each case.

Statement in Support of Motion for Leave to Appear Pro Hac Vice

I was admitted to practice law in the State of California on June 6, 1991. I am a member in good standing of the State Bar of California, Member No. 152290. I have practiced law continuously in the State of California. No disciplinary sanctions were imposed against me in the State of California and no investigation of my conduct was conducted.

I was admitted to practice law in the State of Oregon on April 4, 2016. In 2019, I resigned from the State Bar of Oregon, because I do not actively practice law in the State of Oregon. No disciplinary sanctions were imposed against me in the State of Oregon, and no investigation of my conduct was conducted.

I was admitted to practice law in the State of New York on June 5, 1989. In 2023, I resigned from the State Bar of New York, because I do not actively practice law in the State of New York. No disciplinary sanctions were imposed against me in the State of New York, and no investigation of my conduct was conducted.
